Coach Jenn du Breuil

Coach Jenn started figure skating at 3½ years old. She skated competitively in singles and in synchronized skating. From 2010 through 2013 she was honored to compete internationally as a member of Team USA, and was the 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 National Champion and World Bronze Medalist with the Haydenettes. Jenn delights in sharing her love of the sport with her students, and enjoys nothing more than young athletes applying the lessons they learned through the sport to become successful young men and women. Jenn is a coach with Philadelphia Symmetry.

About Synchro

Synchronized skating is a team sport in which 8-20 skaters perform a program together. It is a popular discipline both within US Figure Skating and around the world. There are approximately 600 synchronized teams registered with US Figure Skating, and nearly 5,000 athletes participate annually in the synchronized skating sectional championships.

Based on the registrations, we will form one or two teams at the Synchro Skills levels.

Snowplow Sam Synchro

5-12 skaters, majority of skaters under 7 years old*.

Synchro Skills 1

8-16 skaters, majority of skaters under 9 years old*.

Synchro Skills 2

8-16 skaters, majority of skaters under 12 years old*.

Synchro Skills 3

8-16 skaters, majority of skaters at least 12 years old*.
